Urban Joelsson, CEO and founder have tragically passed away

It is with great sorrow that we announce today that Flowocean AB's CEO and founder Urban Joelsson has tragically passed away after an accident in Finland.

Our thoughts are with his family. We will remember Urban with gratitude for his great commitment and tremendous energy in the development of Flowocean AB. The company's management will continue to develop the company with vigour and determination.

We have today appointed Urban's closest colleague Cristoffer Kos as CEO.
